

Beata Hyży- Czołpińska, a director of documentaries and reportages work for the Polish Television.

She mostly takes up the social and cultural issues of the Polish borderland. She is the author of the documentary series „Znane nieznanie” („Known unknown”) that has been realised since 1997 and several dozens of reportages and documentaries that have been presented by the central Polish Television and at numerous festivals of television and documentary programmes.

Her documentary „Doktor z Hajnówki” („Doctor from Hajnówka”) won the Award of The President of Białystok at XVI International Catholic Festival of Film and Multimedia, Niepokalanów 2001.

The film “ Król Biebrzy” („The King of Biabrza River”) was awarded with the II place at the Ekoforum Film Festival

The reportage “... taki poprzeczny człowiek” („...such a square man” received the second award at I Festival of Television Reportage, Włocławek 2000 , and at IV Review of Journalist Work TVP S.A., Gdańsk 2000 and was nominated for the GRAND PRESS 2000 Award.

The documentary “ Maszer” ( “Musher”) , produces for Channel 1 Polish television, was awarded with Grand Prix at the Polish Journalist Competition „Open Eyes” 2002 for the best television documentary and was nominated for the GRAND PRESS 2002 Award.

The documentary „ Proroczy żywot Eliasza” was awarded with Special Prize at VIII Review of Journalist Work TVP S.A., 2004.

The film „Rzeka” („River”) received an Honorary Award at the Awards of the Journalist Association, 2004.

The complete list of achievements may be provided on request.

Contact: Beata Hyży-Czołpińska, Warszawska 42a/17, 15-077 Białystok
Tel/fax. +48 601 850 682; e-mail: Beata.Hyzy@bia.tvp.pl,
climber5@wp.pl